

Note on the strategy
of the Islamic Committee of the International Crescent (ICIC)
For the years 2021-2025

The strategy of the Islamic Committee of the International Crescent (ICIC) was approved, under Resolution (V) of the twenty-fifth session of the Committee, held on 22 to 24 February 2010 in Damascus - Syrian Arab Republic.

Pursuant to paragraph (3) of this resolution, the international Crescent administration worked on the development of operational arrangements for the strategic it is noticed that most of the States parties to the Agreement of establishment of the Islamic Committee of the international Crescent, did not pay their financial contributions in the annual budgets, all these reasons have led to obstacle of activities and projects of the international Crescent.

The ICIC continued however, some humanitarian activities undertaken by the International Crescent administration and its subsidiary organs partially funded by the Islamic Solidarity Fund and some aid and financial contributions presented in cases of disasters and humanitarian crises suffered by some countries within the means available, as well as awareness-raising activities in the areas of promoting and strengthening international humanitarian law.

Consequently the strategy goals have been reviewed and updated, the International Crescent administration proposes adopting the amended text as presented of the strategy for the years 2021-2025, hoping to obtain the financial contributions from States Parties, and the improvement of conditions in the host country, and the necessary funds so Crescent international administration and its subsidiary bodies proceed to the operational applications of the strategy.‘
